GDS was established in 2007 as a Limited Company operating predominantly in the insurance sector and has evolved to become a high quality professional consultancy of Chartered Building Surveyors and Property Consultants with offices located in Kent and Sussex. GDS operates throughout the South East and in London and has extensive experience of most property sectors and building types from urban multi storey housing to historic building repair, maintenance and preservation. With our core disciplines of building Surveying and Project Management, we are able to offer our clients a wide range of property consultant services from surveys and defects analysis through to design and contract administration for high value refurbishments, extension and new build schemes. Having experienced working within larger practices it is our aim to provide a tailored, friendly and personal service to our clients with the goal of forging longstanding, mutually beneficial relationships. We understand the way to do this is with hands on management. The GDS directors work alongside surveyors on projects to foster an inclusive team ethos and impart experience in order to achieve the best results for our clients. Within all projects we pride ourselves in our careful ECP design considerations which make use of sensible and low cost low-carbon measures. Our experience in surveying enables GDS to provide a superior level of service, and value to our clients, these are the reasons we are rewarded with a high level of customer satisfaction and consequential repeat business.
